

CIES2021 Submission Instructions for New Scholars Committee Workshops

Online Submission Deadline: October 14th, 2020, 17:00 hrs, EDT.

What is a New Scholars Committee Workshop?

The New Scholars Committee (NSC) offers two workshops for doctoral students, recent doctoral graduates, and early career professionals.

The New Scholars Dissertation Mentoring Workshop (NSDMW) is a unique opportunity for doctoral students (Ph.D. and Ed.D.) to discuss their dissertation research in small groups of experienced scholars as well as with peers with similar topical or methodological interests. Participants receive feedback on the design, data collection and/or analysis of their dissertation, followed by an opportunity for all participants to meet and exchange ideas.

The New Scholars Publication Mentoring Workshop (NSPMW) is a unique opportunity for final stage and recent Ph.D. and Ed.D. graduates as well as early career professionals to discuss a paper that they have developed for publication and would like to refine with experienced scholars and peers. Participants will be provided feedback, particularly on the paper sections related to theoretical framework, methodology and findings, along with an opportunity to strengthen links among peers.

Before you begin, please note: You will not be able to save a proposal in the system in order to continue working on it at another time. You must first submit the proposal and then you will be able to edit it. When you have submitted it correctly, you will see a confirmation message on your screen, and you will receive an email. You will be able to edit the proposal until the deadline of October 14th, 2020, 23:59 hrs, EDT.

65th Annual Conference of the Comparative and International Education Society
CIES 2021 Seattle
Social Responsibility Within Changing Contexts
Seattle, Washington, April 25 - 29, 2021

As we enter the third decade of the 21st century, we see rapid changes in political, economic, environmental, cultural, and social spaces, including new non-state actors who are now more involved. These changes influence education globally and locally. This calls for revisiting the relationships among context, actors, visions, and action, and our own collective social responsibility. Contextual changes include the global sharing of cultural values, a refinement of neoliberal economic and political agendas, and the acceleration of environmental challenges. In addition, we recognize a narrowing of the purpose of education toward economic outcomes, particularly as they are framed discursively in policy and practice, and the prioritization of technological innovations over other forms of learning. Alongside and within these changing contextual processes, values, and conditions are new actors in the education and development arena, including corporations, corporate philanthropies, celebrities, and billionaires, and perhaps the emergence of new social movements. What are their agendas and processes? How do they do the work they do? How are lives consequently affected? How does education actors, along with their theories of action? How do they do the work they do? How are lives consequently affected? How does social responsibility – of corporate entities, governments, development organizations, communities, and researchers – interact with these changing contexts, the growing range of actors, and evolving visions and approaches to education globally and locally?

Note on Submission Limit
In order to promote wide participation, only one submission per presenter is allowed for either an individual presentation (Formal Paper, Roundtable Paper, or Poster) or for group presentation (Formal Panel or Roundtable Session). After you have been submitted as a presenter, the online submission system will automatically disable the option to submit additional papers, panels, roundtables, or posters (as a presenter). However, submissions in other formats do not count towards the submission limit. Participants may also be listed more than once in the conference program as a co-author (non-presenter), organizer, chair, or discussant. They will also be able to participate in a Pre-conference workshop, Book launch, Art Exhibit and/or NSC Workshops. If you have questions about submission via the online system, please contact: cies2021@cies.us.

- Dissertation Workshop
- Publication Workshop

Step 5: Select "Yes" to the proposal submission policies, enter workshop Title and Proposal information, and select Keyword(s) (that information is mandatory). Geographic Descriptors, Other Geographic Descriptor and Additional Information are optional. Then click on "Accept and Continue" when finished. The workshop title must be in mixed case

(not all caps).

Step 6: You should automatically be the selected “Presenter” of your Workshop. You can remove it in case you were not a presenter just by selecting “remove”. To find co-presenters or Non-presenters, write their last names (or part of it) in the box, and click on “Search for Author” (Step I), look for the co- author under his/her last name, and select “Add Non-Presenter” or “Add Presenter” close to the name (Step II). When completed, click on “Accept and Continue” (Step III).

The screenshot shows a web interface for adding authors. At the top, there are instructions: "If a co-author is already in the conference database, his/her name will be matched and will appear in a table below. You will then be given an option to add him/her from that table." and "If a co-author is NOT already in the conference database, you will still need to type his/her name in the search box as a precaution against duplicate submissions. After the preliminary search, an option to enter a new co-author into the database will appear." Below this is a search box with "Last Name" and "ruscallea" entered, and a "Search for Author" button. A box labeled "Step I" points to the search box. Below the search box is a section titled "Choose From List of Authors" with instructions: "The results from your search will appear below. To add someone, select 'Add Author' in the 'Action' field to the far right of the Author's name." A table lists authors with columns for #, Person, Email Address, Affiliation, and Action. The table has two rows: row 1 is partially obscured, and row 2 shows "Ruscalleda, Mara" with email "mrusca@gmail.com" and affiliation "AOS". The "Action" column for row 2 has three links: "Add Non-Presenter", "Add Presenter", and "Add Presenter". A box labeled "Step II" points to these links. At the top right, there is a button labeled "Accept and Continue" with a box labeled "Step III" pointing to it.

Note: If you do not find your co-presenter(s) in the list, this is because they are not in the database. In that case, you have to select “Add Unlisted Author”, complete all the information, and then click on “Accept and Continue”. Press “Accept and Continue” again.

This screenshot shows the same search interface as above, but with the "Add Unlisted Author" link highlighted in a red box. Below the table, there is a section titled "Author not listed?" with instructions: "If you cannot find the Author, select the 'Add Unlisted Author' link below. IMPORTANT: Before adding someone to the database, make sure s/he is not already in the system by performing a last name search above." The "Add Unlisted Author" link is highlighted in a red box.

Step 7: When you have finished adding all the workshop presenters click on “Accept and Continue”.

Step 8: Review the information, edit as necessary, and then click on “Accept and Continue”.

You have now submitted a New Scholar Committee Workshop Proposal for CIES2021. You will receive a confirmation message on your screen and a confirmation email for your submission. If you do not receive an email, please contact cies2021@cies.us to verify the submission went through before October 14th, 2020, 17:00 hrs, EDT.

Thank you for your interest in CIES2021!
